Let's Talk Funding

ways to pay for study abroad

Do you usually get financial aid for school?

QUESTIONS FOR YOUR ADVISOR

Can I use my financial aid for study abroad?

If yes, will all of it apply?

Are there any special forms that need to be completed by either me or my study abroad provider?

Is there any additional funding for study abroad from my university?

- Financial aid funds from your university usually arrive after the start date of your program.
- Once you figure out how much financial aid you'll be getting, use the Financial Aid Calculation Tool (FACT) on our website to determine your out-of-pocket costs.

Did you know?
60%
of students use their financial aid to help fund their program.

Not receiving financial aid?

No problem!

PAYMENT PLANS

We offer payment plan options for participants and their families who need more time to make payment arrangements. Please reach out to us to learn more about payment plan options, which generally align with the following timeline:

529 & COLLEGE SAVINGS FUNDS

We accept any funds that are applicable to study abroad programs. Check with your 529/college savings provider to ask about using these funds towards your program.

GRANTS & SCHOLARSHIPS

There are numerous scholarships and grants available through us and our host university partners, whether you have financial need or not. Check out the details on page 6 of this guide.

HOME UNIVERSITY GRANTS & SCHOLARSHIPS

Many U.S. universities have scholarships and grants available. Be sure to check with your study abroad office and/or financial aid office at your home university to see if they have additional funding available for programs abroad.

FEA ACCESS PARTNER SCHOLARSHIPS

The Fund for Education Abroad (FEA) provides scholarships of up to $5000 and ongoing support to students from underrepresented backgrounds in study abroad. As an FEA Access Partner, FEA scholarship applicants participating on an ISA or TEAN program may be eligible for additional financial support.

Visit bit.ly/ws-fea to apply.

FUNDRAISING

Get creative. There are many ways to raise money before your program. Start as early as possible and see page 7 for fundraising ideas.

Check out our Scholarships and Grants

TEAN and ISA offer more than $1.5 million per year to help make study abroad a reality.

Fundraising Guide to Study Abroad

Fundraising is a great way to raise money for your education abroad program. We encourage students to get creative and put the “fun” in fundraising!

HOMETOWN RESOURCES

When asking businesses for funds, focus locally. Start with the Chamber of Commerce, who might be able to provide contact information for nearby businesses. Consider reaching out to your local Rotary or other clubs who might be willing to sponsor you.

BIRTHDAYS & HOLIDAYS

Ask for contributions to your study abroad fund instead of presents this year.

GET ACTIVE

Commit to running a marathon, biking a certain distance, or participating in some sort of race or event. Ask friends and family to make a pledge.

TUTORING

Students are always in need of tutoring! The hours are flexible and you can set your own rates. If you excel in a particular subject, consider offering your services.

NETWORK

Reach out to your school, youth group, manager at a part-time job, local companies, or your parents' friends—anyone who might be willing to contribute to your cause. You never know what people will say unless you ask!

CROWDFUNDING

Various websites such as gofundme.com are great platforms where your social media connections can easily contribute to your fund.

START A SHOP

Have a skill or interest you can market and sell? Think Etsy, Facebook marketplace, or a local farmer's market. Use your skills to help fund your program abroad.

FREELANCING

Love to write? Freelancing is a great opportunity for aspiring writers to stretch their skills and earn extra cash. Many companies need gifted writers, and freelance websites can be a great place to make those connections.

FREQUENT FLYER MILES

Ask friends, family, or your neighbors to donate their frequent flyer miles to you. If you have enough people pledge their miles, you can purchase your plane ticket for little to no cost.
